NYC STREET PAELLA

Arroces NYC is a street paella pop-up founded by Chef Eduardo Cuenca, bringing authentic Spanish flavors to New York City. Known for its vibrant community gatherings, Arroces NYC serves high-quality paella made with fresh ingredients, including shrimp, calamari, and a rich sofrito base. The pop-up combines food, music, and culture, creating a unique dining experience that attracts both Spanish expats and local food enthusiasts. With a growing following, Arroces NYC has become a must-visit destination for those seeking an authentic taste of Spain in the heart of NYC.

Eduardo Cuenca is a culinary entrepreneur of Venezuelan descent with Spanish roots, currently based in New York.

His passion for cooking led him to found Arroces NYC Street Paella, a food venture dedicated to offering authentic paellas and traditional Spanish dishes with an urban and modern twist. Through his project, Eduardo aims to bring the most representative Mediterranean flavors to the streets of New York, blending tradition and innovation to delight food lovers.
